

Salomon Benzimra, P.Eng.

Summary bio

Born in 1943 in the International Zone of Tangiers (now, Morocco), Salomon Benzimra studied in France where he graduated with honors as a Chemical Engineer from the Ecole Nationale Supérieure de Chimie, University of Bordeaux, in 1965.

He has been working in petro-chemical projects in North America and overseas for over 30 years. Semi-retired since the early 2000s, he has focused on economic and financial analysis of industrial projects, and he became interested in Middle East affairs. In 2009, he co-founded *Canadians for Israel's Legal Rights*¹ with Goldi Steiner. He is the author of several papers posted online and of a concise educational book – The Jewish People's Rights to the Land of Israel, available in Amazon-Kindle edition².
